5/11/2009

Even with a slow start to 2009, Pro Motion is excited to have added nine new clients to the Pro Motion family. St. Louis-based companies Energizer and Geile-Leon top the list. Additional client partners include: Pepsi, Peachtree TV Marketing, Schalge, Ames-Scullin & O'Haire, Push on behalf of Smokey Bones, and newest addition – Bruegger's Bagels.

Pro Motion, President, Steve Randazzo, says, "We're fortunate to have returning clients who trust our organization with their brand like Disney, Bosch, CNN, Crown Distributors along with so many agency partners. Adding so many new clients in the past 90 days is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our staff and the reputation we have in this industry."
